

“Fragments of cadmium fall from the December sky; Hallelujah. A jubilant crowd gathers to watch as wintertide particles granulate our blessed nativity. Everyone sings.”